ATTORNEY REGISTRATION AND DISCIPLINARY COMMISSION
OF THE
SUPREME COURT OF ILLINOIS

To whom it may concern.

Honorable
Judge
Chang

My name is Robert Haas. I am writing this letter in regards to a panel attorney working for the federal courts in Chicago IL.

ELLEN R. DOMPH ATTORNEY AT LAW

53 W JACKSON BOULEVARD SUITE 1544 CHICAGO IL 60604
TELEPHONE 312-922-2525 edomph@gmail.com domphdefense.com

Ellen Domphe was assigned to represent myself on 6/12/2019 from the Federal Defender Panel. She did good the first day. It all went downhill from there. On 7/23/2019 I told Ellen I wanted a speedy trial. She visited me at MCC Chicago afterward and I told her again I want my speedy trial. She told me "you don't get a speedy trial because I don't think you can keep your mouth shut."

Soon after this she sent a letter, 9/18/2019 stating she "will visit soon to discuss our expert witness and what to expect." During this period I was also asking for another bond hearing due to changed 3rd party custodian status. She never asked for a bond hearing and I never asked for an expert witness. After this she recommended a psychiatric evaluation and stopped responding. She refused my 6th Amendment speedy trial guarantee, my 1st Amendment freedom of speech, did not file a bond hearing motion I requested, then told me it would be best if I did not communicate with my ex girlfriend who lives in Moscow Russia who has absolutely nothing to do with the case. Failure to file, procrastinating maliciously, failure to follow clients lawful instructions, failure to provide reasonable diligence and promptness, also saying I'll come visit you next week and never showing up at MCC.

According to ABA Standard (4-5.2) Model Rules of Professional Conduct only after consultation with myself should she decide ¹ what witnesses to call ² how to cross examine witnesses ³ jurors to accept or strike ⁴ motions to make ⁵ evidence to introduce. ABA (1.3) MRPC reasonable diligence and promptness ABA (1.2) MRPC lawyer is bound to follow clients lawful instructions ABA (1.7) MRPC not being loyal to myself for obvious personal conflicts of interest. On 9/23/2019 Ellen Dornph filed a motion for extension of time against my wishes along with her abuse of process psych evaluation. I was forced to write my own motions to FIRE her, ask for a speedy trial and begin to subpoena witnesses. I fired her and I'm now pro-se with "standby council" DENA M. SINGER ATTORNEY AT LAW

 TELEPHONE 312-525-2017 dsinger@bedisinger.com www.bedisinger.com

Dena M. Singer has been professional and responds in a timely manner. Ellen Dornph's behavior was extremely unprofessional and legal malpractice. She violated many of my constitutional guarantees such as due process and treated me cruelly and unusually. Denied my 1st amendment, 6th amendment, and 5th amendment. Ellen didn't inform me when my court dates were rescheduled and failed to inform my family whom she also had contact with. All of which I feel is an absolute breach of fiduciary duty failing to carry out responsibilities to myself her client. She never spoke with me about my preferred defense strategy and seemed more likely to be beholden to the prosecutor than myself. When I asked the Judge (Chang) to explain her behavior during a "Sealed ex-parte meeting" Dornph refused to answer to her unethical behavior. Malicious and inexcusable. I would like to see disbarment from the practice of law in the future. Please keep me informed of the progress of this complaint.
